EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

INDIA NEEDS A 'NATIONAL SECURITY STRATEGY': The demand for a national security strategy is again under public discussion as the neighbourhood gets into a flux, old enemies muscle up, and new friends are yet to commit themselves. India's economic ambitions to be a $4 trillion economy, is also likely to face strong headwinds as the wars in Ukraine and Gaza continue, dragging down global growth. The economy is really the key to everything else. After all, everyone wants a slice of the economic pie, from the Ministry of Health to the Ministry of Defence. That means prioritisation within rather scarce resources, and that is the key to national security strategy making.

Interpreting the term: For such an exercise, one has to first decide what comes under the umbrella term of 'national security'. The problem is it means different things to different States, at different times.

For the United States, it once centred around a 'union of our values and national interests.' That means you can stand up as the most powerful democracy, even while supporting a clutch of dictators for economic gain. After all, while Joe Biden's National Security Strategy (NSS) mentions 'values' 29 times, it is centred around the need to maintain America's leadership role. That means money.

There are no two opinions on the fact that India needs an NSS, that will bring together diverse aspects such as defence, finance, investments and climate change into one coherent whole, and then set a direction for the country. However, this exercise needs to be done within the realm of top secrecy for some very good reasons.

A full thread running through the economy: In sum, a national security document is an urgent need. It is not just about defence. Linked closely to it are priorities within the economy that will give a direction to industry, to financial institutions, and all the other tentacles that make up the lifeblood pulsing through the economy. That exercise is generally done piecemeal through various annual reports and surveys. The trick is to integrate it all together and set a direction for the country to reach where it wants to go, and fast. Therefore, the exercise is one best kept close to one's chest, even as directives are issued separately to Ministries and others. The National Security Council Secretariat is more than up to the task. Similar exercises have been done before, though in a voluminous style so beloved of bureaucracy. Here is some advice: keep it simple, keep it short and keep it specific. And, above all, keep it well under wraps. Your enemies would be dying to know its contents.

NEWS SPARKLERS

Screw lodged in boy's nose for two years!

Jiaozuo: A 7-year-old boy who had been complaining about a mysterious bad smell for two years had a metal screw stuck in his left nostril.

The unnamed boy from Jiaozuo, China's Henan Province, had been telling his parents that he smelled something bad for at least a couple of years, but they could never figure out what it was. They certainly couldn't smell what it was, and the 7-year-old child couldn't really describe the smell, so for a long time, they ignored his claims as make-believe.

However, his complaints became more frequent, so they decided to take him to a doctor. An examination of the boy's nostrils revealed a mysterious black mass in his nose, a find later confirmed by a CT scan of his head. It was covered in several layers of nasal secretions and dried pus, so no one really knew what it was at first, but after cleaning it, doctors realised it was a metal screw.

Student eats 720 eggs in 28 days as experiment

Boston: A Harvard medical student recently completed an intriguing "eggxperiment" by eating a total of 720 chicken eggs over 28 days to test their effect on his bad cholesterol.

Nick Horowitz, a Harvard medical student with a PhD in metabolic health, set out on an extreme experiment to find out what the effects of eating an egg every hour for 28 straight days would have on his health. Not only did he survive the challenge, but the results of his tests during the unusual diet were surprising, to say the least.

"The purpose of this experiment was a metabolic demonstration to discuss the 'levers' that can affect cholesterol in different individuals. I expected my cholesterol levels not to change by just adding the eggs — and that is indeed what happened," Horowitz said.

ED ramps up probe; seeks documents from MUDA

Lokayukta Police likely to summon CM Siddaramaiah, wife Parvathi and others for questioning after Dasara

Mysuru, Oct. 8 (BLU&BCT)- The Enforcement Directorate (ED) has ramped up its investigation into the controversial allotment of 14 sites to Chief Minister Siddaramaiah's wife B.M. Parvathi, by Mysuru Urban Development Authority (MUDA). The sites have now voluntarily been returned to MUDA.

In a major development, the ED has instructed MUDA to submit all the crucial documents related to the case, which forms the basis of the FIR (11/2024) registered by the Lokayukta against Siddaramaiah, his wife Parvathi, his brother-in-law B.M. Mallikarjunaswamy and landowner J. Devaraju.

The case concerns a 3.16-acre plot in Kesare (Survey Number 464), in Mysuru gifted to Parvathi by her brother B.M. Mallikarjunaswamy. The land's exchange for alternative sites in Vijayanagar's Third and Fourth Stages is under scrutiny.

Lokayukta Police have already launched a detailed investigation, examining alleged offences spanning from 1968 to 2023. Teams are tracing records dating as far back as 1935, when Ninga, the father of Devaraju, originally owned the disputed land in Kesare's survey numbers 462 and 464.

The ED has pressed MUDA for swift submission of these documents to its office in Bengaluru's Shantinagar, adding to the mounting pressure on MUDA officials, who are also dealing with similar requests from the Lokayukta and the Justice P.N. Desai Commission.

A dimming glow amidst festivities

'Dasara' in Kannada becomes 'Dara', 'Upasamithi' becomes 'Upamiti'

Mysuru, Oct. 8 (BLU&BCT)- As Dasara unfolds, the streets of Mysuru shimmer with electric lights. However, significant lapses have been observed on Sayyaji Rao Road, where numerous electric lights are malfunctioning. A banner for Dasara Illumination Sub-Committee-2024 displays faded Kannada letters, transforming 'Dasara' into 'Dara' (ದರಾ) and 'Sub-Committee' (Upasamithi) into 'Upamiti.' (ಉಪಮಿತಿ). This oversight has turned into a subject of ridicule among the public.

On Dasara inauguration day, electric lights were hurriedly installed along Sayyaji Rao Road and other areas, including green canopy, resulting in confusion and disorder. Had the illumination work been completed a few days ahead of festivities, with thorough checks for any errors, such lapses could likely have been avoided. The total expenditure for illumination runs into several crores of rupees, raising concerns about the apparent disarray.

Streets leading to Chief Minister Siddaramaiah's residence at T.K. Layout were left dark, with lights remaining off at 8.30 pm, overshadowing the festivities.

New Kantharaj Urs Road and Udaya Ravi Road also faced non-functioning lighting systems. This year's lighting installation, which spans 130 kms over 21 days, has encountered major setbacks, with LED and bulb lights reportedly not operational.

Locals are frustrated with poorly lit roads while many others are disheartened that despite a hefty expenditure of Rs. 6.5 crore, the lights are not functioning properly. Tourists hoping to witness the dazzling display during Dasara are equally disappointed by the numerous lights that remain turned off. Questions abound regarding the lighting arrangements, with many wondering if the 130 kms of illumination are confined solely to the roads surrounding the Mysore Palace.

Pilgrimage to Kashi, Ayodhya and Prayagraj

Sir,

This refers to KBG's Abracadabra titled "From Here to Eternity: A Pilgrimage to Introspect!" in Star of Mysore dated Oct. 1 and 2. The problems you (KBG) faced in Kashi and Ayodhya are more self-inflicted.

You needed a good tour planner (you could have done it by yourself like we did) and local guide (optional). My wife and I did cover all these places and our experiences were wonderful. I am an octogenarian and an NRI with deep roots in Mysuru.

1. We went to Kashi a few years back when they were demolishing old buildings to make a path to Ganga. Special puja ticket was about Rs. 500 and we had a good darshan.

We rented a boat for the ride in the evening and it covered a well-managed 'Ganga Aarti' also. Like you, we were scared about the pollution of Ganga and heard stories of dead bodies floating. It is all history now. Still, we don't expect people to drink untreated Ganga water, but it is good for a holy dip.

2. We went to Prayagraj during the Kumbh Mela from Kashi by train. From train station, we had to go to Tent City. Kumbh Mela was very well organised and we enjoyed it. My only concern is that Allahabad has thousands of buildings which are more than 100 years old and we did not see much upkeep.

3. We went to Ayodhya during this January, 2024. We knew the temple was not complete, city was not ready for big crowd and amenities will be minimal. We took a direct flight from Bengaluru to Ayodhya and it was comfortable. We booked a hotel near the temple. It did not have all amenities, but was new and comfortable. Ram Temple was just 5 minutes walk!

On the internet, we booked a time slot for darshan and took a printout. No one cared for that printout and the darshan was very easy (less than 20 minutes including leaving your slippers and go through security). Since it was easy, we had Ram Lalla darshan twice. Arrangements within the temple complex were very good. Crowd outside the temple on the main street was like Mysuru Dasara.

However, the crowd was mostly rural, religious, well-behaved and no fear of any kind. Temple authorities were distributing free food to all devotees. Lata Mangeshkar Circle and Sarayu River bank were well-maintained. We spent 2 nights and then took a direct flight back to Bengaluru.

We wish your future pilgrimage tours will be enjoyable like ours.

Caste Census Report to be placed before Cabinet on Oct.18: CM

Bengaluru, Oct. 8 (KMS&DM)- Moving a step ahead on the Socio-Economic-Educational Survey, also known as Caste Census, years after it was presented to the Government, Chief Minister Siddaramaiah on Monday announced that the Report will be placed in the Cabinet meeting on Oct.18.

Speaking to mediapersons after meeting Ministers and Legislators from Other Backward Communities (OBC), Siddaramaiah said "The Caste Census Report will be placed before the State Cabinet during its meeting on Oct.18. We will abide by whatever the Cabinet decides."

Pointing out that this was not just a Caste Census of Backward Classes but that of 7 crore Kannadigas, he said that the Report has been accepted though he has not read it yet.

Stating that he had commissioned such a census for the first time in India during his earlier stint as the CM (2013-2018), Siddaramaiah said the census was conducted through the then Backward Classes Commission led by H. Kantharaj. The Commission Chairman had informed him that census has been conducted door-to-door, he added.

On questions raised by the Opposition on why the Report was not implemented during his earlier stint, Siddaramaiah said the Report had not been submitted at that time.

A ploy to divert public attention: HDK

Even as CM Siddaramaiah announced that the Caste Census Report will be placed before the State Cabinet, Union Minister and JD(S) leader H.D. Kumaraswamy (HDK) said that it was a ploy of the State Congress Government to divert public attention from its scams.

Speaking to presspersons here yesterday, HDK alleged that the Congress had made such attempts to divert public attention from scams earlier too and it has resorted to its same old tactics in covering up its scams now.

Wondering why the Government was silent all these years on the Report, he maintained that it will not benefit any caste. Though the Report was accepted even before LS polls, why no decision was taken then, he questioned the CM.

Known for stunts such as 'Opening Crossing,' 'Double Crossing,' 'Parallel Crossing,' 'Chain Crossing' and 'Scissor Crossing,' the 'Shwet Ashwa' team captivates audiences with their dazzling displays.

The riders perform without holding the handlebars, sitting on the rear seat, on the petrol tank, backwards, or standing on the seat.

They even climb a ladder placed on a moving bike, controlling the bike with the ladder — showcasing incredible balance and synchronisation honed through years of practice.

This year, the audience can look forward to scissor crossings, parallel crossings, diamond crossings, V-crossings, jump crossings, a Christmas tree model, pyramid formations, a rotating 'Sudarshana chakra' model, a hopping fish model, crashing through barriers, and many other astonishing stunts on Oct. 12.

An Enforcement Case Information Report (ECIR) has been filed under the Prevention of Money Laundering Act (PMLA) against Siddaramaiah, Parvathi, and others, revolving around allegations of illegal money transfers linked to the land allotments. MUDA now faces a tight deadline of three to four days to comply with the ED's demands.

Meanwhile, Lokayukta officials, under the leadership of their SP T.J. Udesh, are reviewing thousands of pages of land records and documents, including those submitted by complainant Snehamayi Krishna. The investigation, which continued yesterday, is set to involve further scrutiny by a Tahsildar from the Revenue Department.

Over 20 officials are engaged in verifying certified copies, with a report currently being prepared. Additional inquiries may be initiated and Snehamayi Krishna could face another summons for questioning.

This intensifying investigation is casting a long shadow over MUDA and Siddaramaiah's family, as authorities show no signs of relenting.

Sources indicate that the Lokayukta Police may summon CM Siddaramaiah, his wife B.M. Parvathi and others for questioning afer the Dasara festival.

49-seat lead for BJP in Haryana, trails to Congress-NC in J&K

New Delhi, Oct. 8 (Agencies)- Counting of votes is underway from this morning for the Assembly elections in Haryana - where the BharatiyaJanata Party (BJP) is eyeing a straight third term - and Jammu and Kashmir, which voted in an Assembly election after 10 years.

In Haryana, the latest trends show that the BJP is leading in 49 of the 90 Assembly seats, while the Congress is ahead in 35. Various exit polls had predicted a clear majority for the Congress in the state.

A voter turnout of 67.9 per cent across two-phase elections to the 90-member State Assembly. Early trends show, the ruling BJP surging past the Congress party, after a setback during initial rounds of counting. The party's lead now stands at 49 seats, one more than the majority mark required to form a Government.

The Congress complained about counting data being uploaded on the Election Commission's website after the BJP dramatically surged past the party's tally in the early trends.

Congress General Secretary and communications in-charge Jairam Ramesh tweeted, "Like the Lok Sabha elections, in Haryana we are again witnessing slowing down of uploading upto-date trends on the ECI website. Is the BJP trying to build pressure on the administration by sharing outdated and misleading trends."

In Jammu and Kashmir, the BJP and the National Conference (NC) have so far won three seats each. According to available leads, the alliance of the Congress and the NC is currently leading in 48 seats, more than the majority mark (46) in the 90-member Assembly. The BJP, on the other hand, is ahead in 26, while the Peoples Democratic Party (PDP) is leading in two.

Jammu and Kashmir voted in its first Assembly elections since 2014, first as a Union Territory and first after the removal of Article 370, which gave the erstwhile State special status.

Other parties that can play a key role in J&K, where exit polls have predicted a hung house, are the People's Conference, Democratic Progressive Azad Party and the Apni Party.

'Delhi Chalo' on Oct. 16 against ED

Mysuru, Oct. 8 (GA&BCT)- In what he described as a "politically motivated" move to undermine CM Siddaramaiah, K.S. Shivaramu, President of Hindulida Vargagala Jagruta Vedike, alleged that the Central Government has initiated ED probe against CM.

Announcing a 'Delhi Chalo' protest for Oct. 16, Shivaramu said that the Vedike plans to submit a formal complaint to the President of India, condemning what they see as "malicious intent" behind the investigation.

Addressing a press meet here yesterday, he accused the JD(S)-BJP of conspiring to remove Siddaramaiah from his position as CM. He pointed fingers at Union Minister H.D. Kumaraswamy and BJP State President B.Y. Vijayendra as central figures orchestrating this political ploy.

Anekal cow yields 42.84 litres milk; tops Dasara contest

Mysuru, Oct. 8 (MTY&DM)- A cow from Anekal in Bengaluru Rural district clinched the first prize in the State-level Dasara Cow Milking Contest, yielding an impressive 42.84 litres of milk.

The event was organised by Raitha Dasara Sub-Committee in association with Animal Husbandry Department as part of Dasara 2024 at J.K. Grounds yesterday.

Over 40 high-yielding HFX breed cows participated in the contest, which was held in two sessions (morning and evening), with the total milk yield from both sessions being considered for rankings.

The cow owned by Ramachandra Reddy of Kaggalipura in Anekal secured the top spot, followed closely by a cow owned by Babu from Thoti village in Channarayapatna, which yielded 42.30 litres, earning second place.

Expressing his joy, Ramachandra Reddy said, "I have been participating in the Dasara competition for the past four years. There are 80 cows in my dairy farm and it is my hobby to participate in various milking contests across the State. I am thrilled that my cow bagged the first prize in Dasara competition."

Ajay P. Reddy's cow from Dommasandra in Anekal taluk, took third place with 41.30 litres, while Devaraj from Kaniyanahundi village in H.D. Kote taluk finished fourth with a yield of 40.58 litres.

The fifth position was claimed by Satish Kumar's cow from Gayathripuram in Mysuru city, which produced 38.35 litres. S. Mahesh's cow from Hinkal came sixth with 36.15 litres, while Muniraju from Bhaktanapalya in Nelamangala taluk secured seventh place with a yield of 31.17 litres.

The first prize included a cash reward of Rs. 1 lakh, the second prize Rs. 80,000, the third prize Rs. 60,000 and the fourth prize Rs. 40,000.

Chamaraja MLA K. Harishgowda presented the prizes to the winning cow owners, with Deputy Director of the Veterinary Department Dr. Nagaraj and other officials in attendance.

Satish Jarkiholi in Mysuru touring Dasara events

'No talk about State leadership change; just Opposition, media speculation'

Mysuru, Oct. 8 (BLU&DM)- Amid growing speculation regarding a potential change in leadership in the State after Dasara, Public Works Department (PWD) Minister Satish Jarkiholi made an unannounced visit to the city this morning.

Speaking to reporters at Jaladarshini Guest House upon his arrival, Jarkiholi addressed questions about the possibility of a leadership change.

He stated that inquiries about this matter should be directed to the Congress High Command, emphasising that he cannot confirm whether CM Siddaramaiah will remain in power for a full five years or just three.

"However, Siddaramaiah is our CM and there is no question about that. I am a Minister in his Cabinet and discussions about a change of CM simply do not arise. There have been no discussions within the Congress regarding leadership changes in the State," he said.

"It is only the Opposition and the media spreading these speculations. I have consistently said that leadership change is not a topic of conversation within party circles. It is natural for supporters of leaders to promote their own leaders as future CM candidates, but this should not be misconstrued as a push for a leadership change," he asserted.

Regarding Dy.CM D.K. Shivakumar's statements, Jarkiholi refrained from commenting on other leaders. He maintained that it is not unusual for politicians to discuss political matters when they meet, insisting that there was nothing extraordinary about his visit to Mysuru today. "I will be travelling around Mysuru city throughout the day to enjoy the Dasara events," he added.

Learn about Aquaponics and pearl culture at Matsya Mela

The Matsya Mela will be open for public till Oct. 10

Mysuru, Oct. 8 (MTY&TRR)- Agriculture Minister N. Cheluvarayaswamy inaugurated the Matsya Mela organised as part of Dasara-2024 by the Department of Fisheries at J.K. Grounds on Saturday. The Matsya Mela will be open for public till Oct. 10.

This year's Matsya Mela features several rare fish species not commonly seen in this region, along with an exhibition of colourful ornamental fish and a Tunnel Aquarium, which are the main highlights.

Visitors are provided with information on fish breeding and profitable pisciculture, with species like Goldfish, Tiger Barb, Fighter, Arowana, Flowerhorn, Platy, White Molly, Happy Swordtail, Angel Fish and Mollies showcased at the event.

Special counters at the Mela offers insights into Aquaponics culture and other modern technologies. Aquaponics is an innovative food production system that combines aquaculture — raising aquatic animals like fish, crayfish, snails, or prawns in tanks — with hydroponics, the method of growing plants in water.

In this system, nutrient-rich water from the aquaculture tanks is circulated to the hydroponic plants, providing them with essential nutrients. The plants, in turn, help filter and purify the water, which is recirculated back to the aquatic animals, creating a sustainable, symbiotic relationship between the two.

Additionally, information on cultivating artificial freshwater pearls from seashells, crab farming and the health benefits of consuming crabs are featured as key attractions.

Rare species such as Parrot Fish from the Amazon, South America's Geo Parsi, Arowana, Stingray, along with freshwater and saltwater fish, are displayed in various aquariums, some decorated with aquaplants. More than 35 aquariums, including freshwater, saltwater and planted aquariums, are on display at the event.

The Matsya Mela also provides information on the programmes, technologies and opportunities available for farmers and those interested in pisciculture.

Chamaraja MLA K. Harishgowda, Karnataka State Guarantees Implementation Authority Vice-Chairperson Dr. Pushpa Amarnath, Deputy Director of the Department of Fisheries and other officials were present at the inauguration.

Yuva Dasara sets young minds on fire

KGF-fame music composer Ravi Basrur and troupe captivate youths with their 'paisa vasool' performance

Music composer Ravi Basrur performing on day-2 of Yuva Dasara programme at the open grounds near Uttanahalli Ring Road in Mysuru yesterday. Picture right shows singer Dhvani Bhanushali's performance at the event last evening.

Mysuru, Oct. 8 (MK&BS)- The second day of Yuva Dasara set the young minds on fire, with the breathtaking musical nite of KGF fame music composer Ravi Basrur, at the open grounds near Uttanahalli Outer Ring Road (ORR) in the city last evening.

Adding to the musical bandwagon was singer Dhvani Bhanushali, who skimpily clad in black, shaking her legs to the tune of the music, cast a magical spell on the young denizens, along with the rythm dance and the folk performance by various college troupes, turning a perfect entertainer of the evening.

A dance ballet on women's empowerment staged by the students of Government First Grade College, K.R. Nagar and Madikeri set the tone for the mega entertainment. The audience held on to their breath, as the students of PES College of Engineering, Mandya, showcased their skills in acrobatics, holding on to Mallagambha. The traditional dance performance by the students of Teresian College attracted the youths towards the stage.

The other performances included - display of love for Kannada by the students of Karunamayi Special School, R.T. Nagar, remembrance of Nalwadi Krishnaraja Wadiyar by the students of Sri Vanivilasa Girls PU College, followed by Government PU College, Vontikoppal and Kuvempu Institute for Kannada Studies (KIKS), University of Mysore, who performed for a mix of folk art forms.

Singer Dhvani Bhanushali, who hit the stage with her powerful voice, belted out a series of Bollywood hit numbers like - Mera Dil, Dum Maaro Dum, along with the chartbuster Sandalwood song - Ra Ra Rukkamma... and Uu Uu Antava... from Telugu blockbuster movie - Pushpa.

Then came the soothing 'Namaami Namaami Eshwara Paada Poojitham...' from singer Vijayalakshmi, followed by 'Dwaparadalli Sri Krishna...' from the voice of singer Santhosh Venky. Popular singer Divya Ramachandra sang the foot tapping song 'Naanu Koko Kolike Ranga...', while the youths went gaga as the 'Rose' film fame heroine Saathvika gyrated for the item song - Shake It Pushpavati from Darshan-starrer 'Kranti'.

The spotlight was on Ravi Basrur, who with the recreation of his musical hit - 'Ziddi Ziddi Hai Toofan...', the popular song of KGF Chapter 2, turned a showstopper of the youthful event. He also extended Dasara greetings to the mammoth gathering, entertaining them with a mix of melody and peppy numbers, before signing off in a style.
